HindeSite Ltd is a Royal Berkshire based Recruitment Consultancy specialising in IT. With a wealth of industry experience, our consultants take pride in representing the HindeSite brand with passion and care.

Founder Jane Hinde started HindeSite Ltd in 2001 with a vision of providing a first class personal service, which has proven to be a winning formula. In what is a highly competitive industry, we are proud to stand out from the crowd boasting a reputation of going above and beyond for all of our clients and candidates. We offer permanent and contractor placements covering regions of the UK, Europe and USA, within various industry sectors including IT, web developers, fashion and footwear, accountancy, financial, and education. Furthermore we work with a number of blue chip organisations and respecting their brand and ethos is why we maintain longstanding business relationships with all of our clients.

We provide a high end service to both client and candidate and working with reputable people and companies is important to us. Our services include, Job Specifications, Skills Gap Analysis, Interview preparation (for both the client and candidate), advertising job vacancies, and we also provide documentation and contracts for Contractor Agreements. We use targeted advertising methods tailored to suit each specific role, and we also pre-interview candidates to ascertain suitability, ensuring that they fill the specific skills gap to maximise business progression. Other services we offer for candidates is a CV Writing Service and 'Interview Preparation' techniques.

Being a trustworthy organisation is imperative within the recruitment industry and we are always sensitive to the privacy and protection of information supplied to us. We are not a high street agency and one of the reasons our clients return time again is due to the personal service that we offer. As an entrepreneur and having lived in several different countries, this has given Jane the foundation of what has helped build the core values and ethos that stand within HindeSite today.

We are ecstatic to win the UK – Niche Recruitment Agency of the year (IT) award. We often receive emails from both clients and candidate thanking us for going that extra mile, so this is the icing on the cake. We truly believe that if you enjoy what you do, it shows in your work, and this is something we will continue to do at HindeSite.
